4. Each permittee shall maintain the insurance coverage required under this section for the duration of the permit. Failure of the permittee to maintain the required insurance for the duration of the license shall result in the immediate revocation of said license.

5. A separate policy of insurance shall not be required under this section if the general policy of insurance provided to satisfy the requirements of Chapter 3 Alcoholic Beverages, of this Code specifically addresses the requirements of this section. If the permittee has both a sidewalk café and parklet permit for the same licensed location, separate policies shall not be required for each permit, but the certificate provided shall provide coverage for all areas for which any permits are issued.

 - a. The licensee violates any provision of the license agreement or this Code;
 - b. The Village President concludes that it would be necessary or convenient for the Village to perform any work in the licensed area of the public property or right-of-way; or to reclaim that area for pedestrian or other public use; or
