- A. A license issued under this chapter is purely a personal privilege, and shall remain in effect through the date stated on the license, unless sooner revoked as provided in this chapter, but in no event for longer than one year. A liquor license does not constitute property, may not be sold, transferred, or assigned to another person, may not be attached, garnished, executed, or otherwise alienated or transferred, voluntarily or involuntarily, encumbered, or hypothecated. A local liquor license entitles only the licensee and the licensee's employees to sell alcoholic liquor at retail in the Village of Lena. One person may not obtain a liquor license for another person. Such license shall not descend by the laws of testate or intestate devolution, but it shall cease upon the death of the licensee, provided that executors or administrators of the estate of any deceased licensee, and the trustee of any insolvent or bankrupt licensee, when such estate consists in part of alcoholic liquor, may continue the business of the sale or manufacture of alcoholic liquor under order of the appropriate court, and may exercise the privileges of the deceased or insolvent or bankrupt licensee after the death of such decedent, or such insolvency or bankruptcy until the expiration of such license but not longer than six months after the death, bankruptcy or insolvency of such licensee pursuant to terms of the Illinois Liquor Control Act (235 ILCS 5/6-1).
- B. renewal of said license. No licensee has a right to renewal; the renewal of a liquor license is a privilege and not a vested right. A person may only be granted a license that currently exists; and nothing in this chapter shall prohibit the Village from decreasing the number of licenses issued within the Village at any time. No liquor license issued hereunder shall be renewed if the licensee is delinquent to the Village in regard to any taxes or fees payable to the Village or is delinquent in filing any required tax returns or paying any amounts owed to the State of Illinois until the applicant has paid the delinquent amount and, in the case of delinquencies owed to the state, the applicant is issued a certificate by the department of revenue stating that all delinquent returns or amounts owed have been paid by guaranteed remittance or the payment agreement to pay all amounts owed has been accepted by the department.

This provision does not apply to a renewal or transfer of an existing Class A, B, BB, C, E, P, GC, or R license, but shall apply to any new application. This provision shall also not apply to a change in ownership at an existing liquor license location where the new owner maintains the same class(es) of license(s). However, should 90 days elapse between the date on which the prior license holder closed for business and the date on which the new license holder opens for business, then the provisions of this subparagraph shall apply to the new license holder.

- C. An application fee must accompany a new liquor license application for a Class A, B, C, E, R, GC, or BB license.
